

BRASS BUZZ

Accelerating the Legacy

Capt Nic Young ('14) and his team are hosting the 3rd annual "Accelerating the Legacy", a 3-day Tuskegee Heritage event. The event will be hosted at Joint Base Charleston, SC, and take place February 16-18, 2023. This will be a star-studded event with guest speakers to include the United States Air Force Chief of Staff- General Charles "CQ" Brown, Documented Original Tuskegee Airmen -Lt Col (Ret) James Harvey, Theresa Claiborne - The First Black female pilot in the Air Force, USAFA Superintendent Lt General Richard Clark, Col Terrence Taylor - The First Black AFSOC Wing Commander, as well as other amazing senior leaders!

In addition to the luncheon and discussion panels, Capt Young has partnered with Legacy Flight Academy and Civil Air Patrol to offer 200 students, ages 10-19 in attendance, the opportunity to fly in an orientation flight! This heritage event will focus on promoting professional development, mentorship, empowerment, and student outreach to advance the Tuskegee Airmen's Legacy. This will be a truly inspirational weekend. If you can attend, please do! If you'd like more information regarding this event please contact Nic Young and his team at acceleratingthelegacy@gmail.com.

Contact us!

@USAFWOL

Help Take Care of Home

@USAFWOL

$USAFWOL

PayPal.Me/usafawol

Gen Charles "CQ" Brown

Lt Gen Richard Clark

Theresa Claiborne

ACCELERATING THE LEGACY

Capt Nic Young ('14) and his team are hosting the 3rd annual "Accelerating the Legacy", a 3-day Tusgee Heritage event. The event will be hosted at Joint Base Charleston, SC, and take place February 16-18, 2023. This will be a star-studded event with guest speakers to include the United States Air Force Chief of Staff-General Charles "CQ" Brown, Documented Original Tusgee Airmen -Lt Col (Ret) James Harvey, Theresa Claiborne - The First Black female pilot in the Air Force, USAFA Superintendent Lt General Richard Clark, Col Terrence Taylor - The First Black AFSOC Wing Commander, as well as other amazing senior leaders! In addition to the luncheon and discussion panels, Capt Young has partnered with Legacy Flight Academy and Civil Air Patrol to offer 200 students, ages 10-19 in attendance, the opportunity to fly in an orientation flight!

This heritage event focuses on promoting professional development, mentorship, empowerment, and student outreach to advance the Tusgee Airmen's Legacy. This will be a truly inspirational weekend. If you can attend, please do! If you'd like more information regarding this event contact Nic Young and his team at acceleratingthelegacy@gmail.com.

Above: Accelerating The Legacy 2022 in partnership with Legacy Flight Academy's 'Eyes above the Horizon' youth outreach program where 175 students attended.

Lt Col Rob Moore, Capt Nic Young, MSgt Raheem Crocket, and DOTA Dr. Eugene Richardson at last year's event.

Accelerating The Legacy 2021

Guest Speakers include: Gen Charles "CQ" Brown, Lt Gen Richard Clark, Theresa Claiborne, and more!

@USAFWOL

$USAFWOL
PayPal.Me/usafawol